

Vocabulary

Forgiveness: deliberate decision to release feelings of resentment or vengeance toward a person or group who has harmed you

Values: consider (someone or something) to be important

Buddhist: Buddhists follow the teachings of a man called Siddhartha Gotama, who was a prince before he left that life to discover the meaning of life and became the Buddha (Enlightened one)

Christian: Christians follow the teachings of Jesus

Hindu: A Dharmic belief system, which

Muslim: Muslims are people who follow or practice Islam

Sikh/Sikhi: The word Sikh means 'disciple' or 'learner'. Sikhi people follow the teachings of Guru Nanak

Jewish people: Follow the religion began by Abraham, and the 10 commandments given to the Jewish people by Moses

Humanist: People who don't believe in God, but do believe there are right ways to decide how to behave

Key learning

- Retell what different religions and world views teach about forgiveness
- Make relevant points in a discussion on forgiveness and link my ideas to everyday life
- Explore questions about meaning and values and express my own ideas and opinions in response to others using art, words or poetry

Symbols/Images/artefacts

 Be truthful and honest	 Only strong people can admit their mistakes	 Treat others the way you would like to be treated	 Do not lie
 Do not steal	 Always speak the truth	 Live your life well	 Forgiveness brings life and growth

Symbols and Qts

Links to further learning

In ability groups to work on thinking skills games around the concept of saying sorry

Compare and contrast religious words around forgiveness with others

Discover more teaching about what different religions and world views teach about saying sorry or forgiveness