Dear parent/carer,

TONIC FLOW: A Communal Chorus in Colour and Sound

Your child is among pupils selected in Year 3 and Year 5 to take part in the Southbank Centre's 75th anniversary celebrations, on Tuesday, 9th June 2026. It will be our opportunity to be part of an important milestone for the SBC / Royal Festival Hall, which was built to coincide with the Festival of Britain.

Students will spend the day immersed in music, rehearsing and performing a curated selection of songs. The centrepiece of the event is the titular anthem, "Tonic Flow," a bespoke piece composed specifically for this anniversary by the acclaimed singer-songwriter Abimaro, in collaboration with the Southbank Centre Youth Voices Choir, and is part of a visual installation designed by Lakwena in collaboration with Compass Collective.

- Date: Tuesday, 9th June 2026
- Time: 9:10am departure from school- arriving back at school by 3.15pm
- Location: Southbank Centre, London

Arbor Please ensure you log in to your Arbor App to give consent for this local bus trip.

Please let office staff know if you will be providing a packed lunch for your child, no later than Friday, 5th June 2026.

Kind regards,

Mr. Huw Tiplady
Music Lead
